Honda's all-new V-Four caught in the act.

It's hard to keep anything secret in this increasingly digital world. Months before any official unveiling, England's Motor Cycle News has just published photos and a scoop story on Honda's all-new 2010 VFR1200 (as it is expected to be called). American Honda was not yet prepared to comment on the bike, so we scrounged up all the information we could find, including the MCN story, leaked images, blog comments and spy photos of the bike being tested in the California desert.
